Overview:

Created in 2010, at present with about fifty members, Unacea is the Italian trade association of construction equipment, open to the contribution of all companies, institutions, and organizations involved in the CE industry. Unacea membership includes earth-moving machines, attachments, concrete equipment, tower cranes and drilling machineries. The mission of Unacea is to create a lean, business-led association with zero

bureaucracy,
able to defend the sector in Italy in an authoritative,
unitary manner,
and represent
the sector in Europe and around the world.
